Smart textile design internship at Nanoleq AG

To Whom It May Concern,

Sonja Cowley completed her six-month internship at our company as a smart textile designer from January 10, 2020 to June 10, 2020. During her time at Nanoleq, Ms. Cowley was actively involved in multiple projects and responsible for important design tasks.

Nanoleq AG is a Spin-Off of ETH Zürich aiming to bring the next generation of elastic conductors to the textile industry.

The tasks and responsibilities of Ms. Cowley at Nanoleq included:

- Brand building / Corporate design
  - Logo design
  - Brand colours, brand fonts etc.
- Commercial Packaging design
- Customers textile design projects
- Graphic design including brochures and web design

Ms. Cowley is a bright and very creative individual. Her motivation for the job comes through in all she does. Over the course of her internship, Ms. Cowley carried out all various tasks with great enthusiasm and persistently pursued the goals set with great personal commitment. She joined Nanoleq in a rapid development phase, and was able to quickly carry out her work independently and very responsibly thanks to her maturity.

In addition to her design skills, Ms. Cowley always had an outstandingly positive attitude towards work and towards other team members. Not only she got along with everyone in the team but she also took several initiatives, which reinforced the team spirit of the company.

I can highly recommend Ms. Cowley for any job she is considering in the Design field. She would be an asset to any employer. If you have further questions about Ms. Cowley or her tasks at Nanoleq, please do not hesitate to contact me at +41 78 838 90 85.

Sincerely,

Vincent Martinez
Chief Executive Officer
